THE LATEST NEWS ON WALTER HOYE'S CASE

This week, LLDf Legal Director Catherine Short and LLDf affiliate attorney Michael Millen, will file a motion for summary judgment in the federal case challenging Oakland's "Mother May I" ordinance. LLDf is representing Rev. Walter Hoye, who last month was sentenced to 30 days in jail and a fine of for violating the ordinance.

The motion is based in part on evidence of discriminatory enforcement of the ordinance. Oakland allows pro-abortion clinic escorts to approach women and speak to them without limitation, while prohibiting pro-lifers from doing the same.

The hearing on the motion is scheduled for June 5. LLDf is asking the court to declare the ordinance unconstitutional and enjoin its enforcement.

Lynn Vincent of World Magazine has chronicled Rev. Hoye's unjust incarceration in her online blog. Please visit World's website to read the outstanding results of Rev. Hoye's time in jail.
