"Latest attack from the City of Oakland"

Rev. Walter Hoye's legal woes continue

News from the Trenches

(California Catholic Daily received the following email on June 10 from Rev. Walter Hoye, the Baptist minister jailed for his pro-life witness outside an Oakland abortion clinic. Apparently not satisfied with Rev. Hoye's jail time and fine, the Alameda District Attorney is now seeking a court order to keep the minister from coming within the length of a football field of Family Planning Specialist Medical Group in Oakland.)

Yesterday, the Alameda County District Attorney (Thomas J. Orloff) filed a "Motion for Injunctive Relief Pursuant to Oakland Municipal Code Section 8.52.040."

The matter is set for Friday, June 19th, 2009, at 2:00 P.M. in front of Judge Stuart Hing.

This is the latest attack from the City of Oakland.

The D.A. is asking Judge Hing to issue an order to keep me from approaching within 100 yards of the Family Planning Specialist Medical Group's Oakland clinic for a period of three years.

I will be represented by the Life Legal Defense Foundation.

Feel free to publish this information.

As always, emphasize "Peace and "Prayer" to all those that feel led by God to attend.

"Peace and "Pray" is the calling card of the Issues4Life Foundation, as we are committed to the principles of "Non-Violent Civil Disobedience" advocated by Dr. Martin L. King, Jr.

As I learn more I will keep you posted.
